FOREWORD

This book was written and compiled for you, the students of Campbell College; without you, there would be nothing.

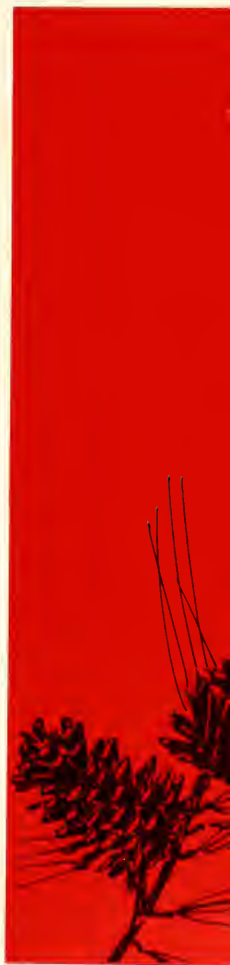

On these pages you will find memories never to be forgotten. Some of the memories may not be happy ones, but we hope you will remember only the happy ones whenever you think of this year.

We hope also that you will enjoy the 1965 PINE BURR as much as we have enjoyed putting it together for you.

Dedicated to Our Parents . . .

On this, as on every other college campus, students work hard and long to attain the status of educated men and women. Away from this, as from every other college campus, there is a much greater number of persons ("parents," they are called) who also work hard and long that this goal may be achieved. Their gift is not confined to just plain hard work and sacrifice but embraces also vital guidance, staunch support, and love. This role parents play in education during the college years may not be the greatest of their gifts to their sons and daughters, but it is of immense importance at the time and its ultimate meaning may not be reckoned even after generations.

It is, then, most fitting that we dedicate this volume of the PINE BURR to those who started this year's achievement long before we did—our parents. May we make their dreams come true!

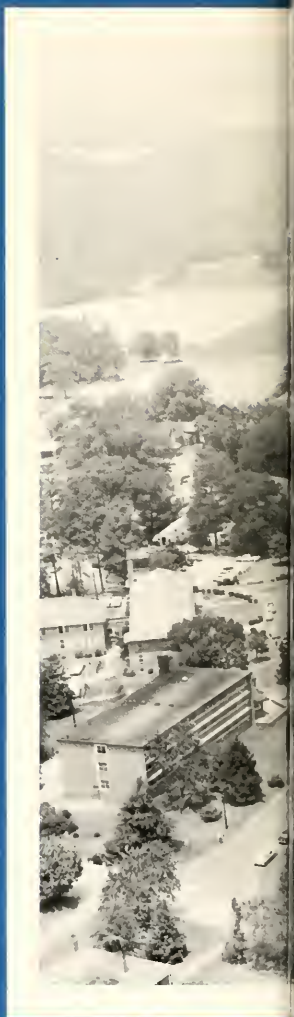

*... And to
Dr. John T. Bunn*

A college yearbook is by custom dedicated to some member of the college community who by reason of personal and professional qualities has made important contribution to students' educational progress. Patience, understanding, kindly humor, and faith are among the important personal qualities: scholarship, firmness, and high ability as a teacher are vital professional characteristics.

It is with a feeling that their selection honors many teachers of like quality that PINE BURR staff members name Dr. John T. Bunn, head of the Department of Religion, as the faculty representative in this year's dedication.

Records number the golden years of those who chose to teach, but records can never count the ways mankind has gained through efforts of persons so sterling as these. Their leadership of budding minds has made the world a vast array of blossoms, sweet with wisdom and radiant with honor. And to those who taught, indeed, go the noblest hues, for deeds of men are but hopes fulfilled of those whose knowing hands have gladly shown the way.

Registration

Cards must be checked and re-checked

One of the most hectic days at our college, as at all colleges, is that of registration. Despite hurried efforts to get into Carter Gymnasium, the student usually finds a line ahead of him stretching from the door all the way out into the parking lot. Once inside, however, the monotony of standing in line is somewhat lessened by the monotony of filling out cards, paying fees, filling out cards, signing checks, and filling out more cards. Then at last the student finds himself standing before the vast bleachers of the basketball court with its numerous registration tables and professors eagerly waiting to snatch up unwary students.

And, finally, after having signed up for a half dozen classes, three of which are on Saturdays, the student is ready for that last long line to get the Dean's approval. With that he is officially registered and free to enjoy a few moments of leisure before the long year begins.

Dean Burkot's desk is the last stop

Not only students but cars also must be registered

Now, where is that room?

THE YEAR BEGINS

For the new student the first day of classes is often a very memorable one. Hurrying through crowded hallways, glancing repeatedly from schedule card to numbers over doors, asking total strangers if this is the right class, right floor, right building, or even, "This is Campbell College, isn't it?" are all a part of beginning the new year. And actually he misses half the experience if he doesn't at least once go dashing into a classroom thinking he's late and find himself facing, to his embarrassment, a whole room full of the wrong people. Of course, things work out for the best somehow and the student is eventually surrounded by lots of friendly faces and familiar places.

At least we won't need a book for chapel!

Getting Acquainted

The cafeteria provides a regular meeting place

The lunch break is one of the nicest things about the daily routine of classes. It gives the students a chance to get out of the classrooms for a while and to enjoy a few moments of leisure with friends. If the line at the cafeteria looks a bit too long, however, one may choose to eat at Pop's, where fast service just can't be beat, or at Jimmy's, where the lights are low and the backs of the booths are high, characteristics which aid in providing a most suitable atmosphere not only for dining but also for making acquaintances.

There are always new faces at Jimmy's.

Pop's is a favorite for many students.

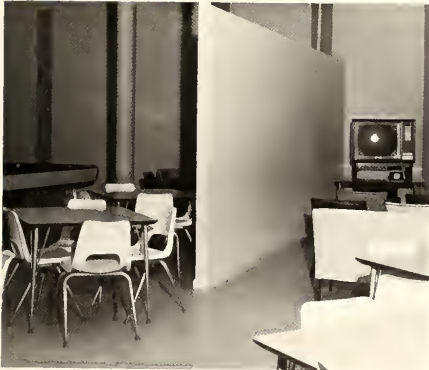

Recreation Center

Mrs. King and Mr. Johnson officially open the recreation center.

When classes are over by mid-afternoon, students enjoy the refreshing activities of the newly-opened recreation center. Its card tables and color-television set provide hours of relaxation and entertainment; for those who prefer a test of skill, there is the challenge of the pool tables.

The recreation center is a part of the ever-increasing number of campus facilities and is valued highly by all who spend their free time there.

Facilities include pocket billiards, card tables and color television.

Eight ball in the side pocket.

Concert Series

BAROQUE ENSEMBLE

The concert series opened on November 19 with a performance by the New York Baroque Ensemble; this excellent group of musicians presented a delightful array of musical entertainment from the great classical masterpieces.

For the students, it was an evening of enjoyment and a venture into the finer world of cultural achievement.

KALEIDOSCOPE PLAYERS

The Kaleidoscope Players went in for some good-natured horse-play as they sang one of the folk songs from the "American Songbag" in their production of The World of Carl Sandburg. Their appearance here on February 15 was a part of a nationwide tour of the unusual play which includes the best of the Pulitzer Prize winner's prose, verse, and songs.

Concert Series

BURKE FAMILY SINGERS

From New England comes one of the most unique attractions of the American concert stage, the Burke Family Singers. Exhibiting a delightful blending of talent with an incredible genius for song, these beguiling singers captivated the eyes as well as the ear of the Campbell audience during their appearance here on March 19.

KAREN DUKE

A pretty girl, a guitar, and a song constituted one of the major springtime attractions when Karen Duke performed on the campus on April 22. Miss Duke is one of the nation's freshest folk singers and one of its most beautiful young women.

The Lettermen

The Lettermen—Jim, Tony and Bob—were the most exciting feature of the fall semester. They thrilled and delighted the audience with their beautiful harmonic versions of such songs as “When I Fall In Love,” “Love Is a Many Splendored Thing,” “Smile,” “What Kind of Fool Am I?” and others, and their newest album, which is a take-off on other vocal groups.

There are few words to express the feeling between the audience and the performers that night: the students who were fortunate enough to see the show will never forget it.

"The Miracle Worker"

Ray Courtney, Freda Britt, and Lin Taylor

The Miracle Worker, which ran for two years on Broadway, was presented by the Campbell Players in November.

Terry Mathiason, a freshman from New Jersey, thrilled audiences with her portrayal of Helen Keller, a blind deaf-mute youngster. Appearing with Terry were Sue Johnson, of Clinton, as Annie Sullivan, Helen's teacher; Ray Courtney, of Marion, Virginia, as the Doctor; Freda Britt, of Murfreesboro, as Helen's mother; and Lin Taylor, of Dunn, as Helen's father.

The entire cast of the Campbell Players deserves credit for a job well done.

Terry Mathiason and Sue Johnson

"IT SHOULD HAPPEN TO A DOG"

George Ennis as "Jonah"

George Ennis and Bill Nunnery starred in Lin Taylor's production of Wolf Mankowitz's play, a skit based on the Biblical book of Jonah. This entertainment provided a change of pace for the chapel audience.

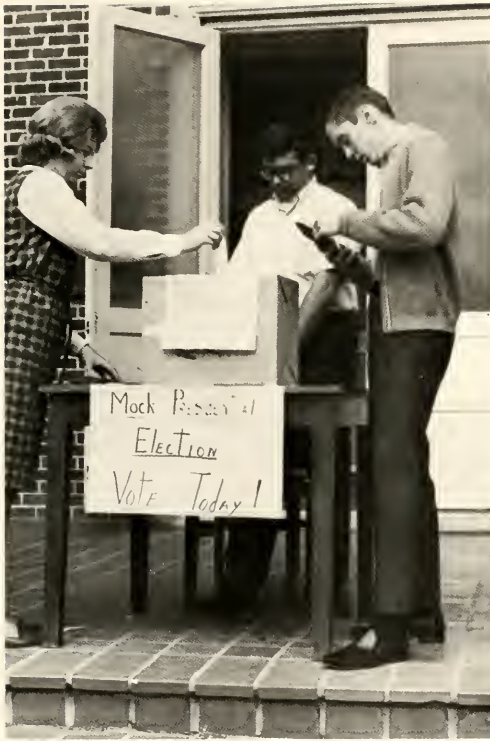

MOCK ELECTION

Presidential elections are always of interest to college students, many of whom have recently reached voting age. Several days before the actual national elections, students at Campbell were given a chance to vote for either the Republican candidate, Senator Barry Goldwater, or the Democratic nominee, President Lyndon Johnson.

Prior to voting, students were invited to a debate led by representatives from Campbell's Young Republican Club and Young Democrat Club. Members of these two clubs argued the current campaign issues.

The Social Science Club then sponsored a mock election in which over fifteen hundred students participated. Voting at Campbell, however, was not indicative of the national elections; Senator Goldwater won by a margin of 148 votes.

THE DEDICATION OF BALDWIN DORMITORY

Jack Hooks, Whiteville attorney and chairman of Campbell's Committee of Friends in the Columbus area, delivers remarks of greeting and appreciation to the Baldwins from the County.

A special ceremony was held on November 16 to name Baldwin Dormitory in honor of Mr. Orrin H. Baldwin, his wife, the late Mrs. Lizzie Baldwin, and his sister, Miss Delphia Baldwin, all of Whiteville. They have given for the eventual use of the College estates valued at one quarter of a million dollars or more; this is the largest single gift that Campbell has received since gifts in similar amounts forty years ago from the estate of D. Rich made possible preparation for transforming the campus of Buie's Creek Academy into a four-year College.

When autumn spreads its browns, reds, and golds over the trees around campus, the briskness of the air enlivens spirits and sends a feeling of sport and excitement through every student. The semester is half over, and it's time for the fun and gaiety of the annual Harvest Festival.

In honor of that celebrated bird, the turkey, the festivities begin with a mile-long race, the winner of which is awarded our fine feathered friend. A colorful parade, following the races, displays the keen interest and participation of students filled with the Thanksgiving spirit. Though nightfall ends the outside activities, the festivity continues inside with a talent show of music and song, and the climax is the crowning of the Harvest Queen.

Christmas

The Christmas season is always a special time of the year. It brings with it socials, Christmas caroling, gifts, happiness, and, best of all, Santa Claus.

Campbell's campus took on an entirely new atmosphere during the month of December. Gay decorations and happy people were seen everywhere; the dorms were filled with music and laughter—and once again we knew that the Yule Season was here.

The National Education Association was also visited by Old Saint Nick.

Each dorm had its own way of celebrating Christmas.

*The Town Criers
from Georgia Tech*

They offer a generous portion of musical talent seasoned throughout by dashes of collegiate humor. They presented a blend of music all the way from Broadway to folk, blues and bluegrass—some traditional, some modern, some original. The performance was a fun-filled experience with each Campbell student an avid listener. The group was composed of four individuals with each one projecting his personal enthusiasm into the show. The "Big Voice," better known as the straight man, was Bill Patterson. Others were Ron Stephenson, Jim Moody, better known as "Foggy" and Ed Wing, called "The Silent Wonder." It was good entertainment.

Spring Festivities

In accordance with tradition, Campbell celebrates the arrival of spring with Spring Festivities. Weeks of planning and preparation precede the occasion. Hours upon hours go into the making of costumes, cleaning of dorms, and practicing for the May Pole Dance. A king, queen, and court are chosen from the appropriate classes.

By the time May 1 arrives, of course, most of the students are exhausted. However, the beauty and gaiety of the program usually revive the students and instill in them an eager anticipation of the approaching summer.

Studying

"This theme will be a major assignment."

The beginning of the first full week of classes usually marks the advent of that favorite pastime of the professor, assigning homework. Catching the blow in full force, and often off balance, the student must scramble desperately to keep up or at least to avoid falling far behind. But then come the reports, the outside reading, the term papers, more reports, more outside reading, and even more term papers. It is little wonder one hears screams and wailing in the vicinity of the dormitories. They tend to diminish somewhat as exam time rolls around, though actually they are simply dwindling down to a piteous moaning.

Most of the students do manage to survive, however, and manage somehow to climb back out into the radiance and gaiety of that beloved summer sun.

"That's not the answer!"

The Thinker

Graduation

Dr. Howard Boozar addresses Campbell graduates.

For most seniors, graduation is a time of mixed emotions. They are happy to know that they have finally made the grade after four long years, but they are sad because they know that another chapter of their lives has ended. They know, too, that the time has come to face the world and to really be "on their own." They wonder what is to happen now. As the door closes behind them, they know that their four years with us here at Campbell will never be forgotten.

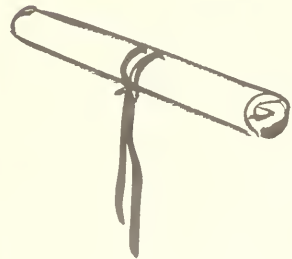

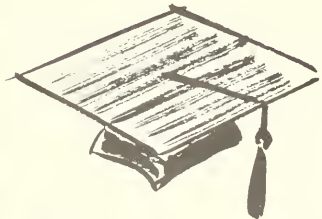

Dr. Campbell awards the diplomas.

The happy throng of graduates.

"But I'm sure they're here some place!"

The educational purposes of Campbell College are accomplished in part by our Chapel as the group activities on our campus each morning give way to a half-hour of worship, meditation, and spiritual fellowship. It is an experience which can, for the reverent and expectant spirit, lie not only at the heart of the day, but also at the heart of our noblest efforts. In the virtues of music, prayer, scripture and meditation one may find nourishment for his soul.

In the many years of its existence, the Touring Choir has visited places as near to the campus as Buie's Creek Baptist Church and as far away as Miami and New York. One of the highlights of this Choir's history was last year's trip to Florida. Not only do the states, churches, and associations visited profit from the music and the presence of the young people, but the Touring Choir also provides an excellent means of publicity and good public relations for the college itself. Membership provides experience in a good choral group, opportunities for travel and meeting people, and the aesthetic benefits which come from working closely with other people.

The Campbell College Band has proven its musical ability to the students and to many friends of Campbell through their very enjoyable concerts both formal and informal. Only the members experience the many hours of practice, but all who hear the band can appreciate their fine performances.

Creek Pebbles, a weekly student newspaper, assumes the responsibility of keeping the campus, alumni, and friends of the college informed of the newsworthy happenings on the campus.

Along with its genuine news function, the newspaper affords students of journalism the opportunity to gain practical experience in the writing of printed news copy and the mechanics of newspaper make-up.

Mr. Philip Kennedy takes time from his duties as director of publicity to serve as advisor for the publication. His reserves of patience are seemingly boundless, as are those of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Delano, publishers of The Benson Review, who assist in the printing.

Students

"First you learn to cook . . .

. . . then you try to get along. . . .

Campbell College is fortunate in having a large number of married students. These students have taken upon themselves the responsibilities that marriage and a family bring as well as those of an education. Nearly everyone feels that these students add variety and usually fine scholarship to their classes.

Among the married students this year could be found several of the outstanding seniors, track stars, actresses, soccer stars, SGA members, members of the all-star volleyball team, annual staff, and members of nearly every other organization on campus.

. . . and then you get a BS in swing-pushing."

Felton Godwin, President

The day students make up a large segment of Campbell's student body and contribute much to the atmosphere of the campus. Theirs is a busy life—hurrying to and from their homes to meet their varying schedules. Often the life of a day student also proves to be quite hectic as he tries to find time to get to the library and to attend various meetings in order to keep in touch with campus activities. This year the college thoughtfully provided a much-needed lounge for the convenience of the day students.

In its second year of existence, Campbell's soccer team, under the leadership of Coach James Cole and Captain George Harvey, made quite an improvement over last year's record. The team finished up the 1964 season with a 7-5 record as compared to last year's record of 2-6. The Camels made a fine showing when they defeated teams from the University of North Carolina and Duke University.

Campbell students displayed great interest in and enthusiasm over the games. Every home game found a large crowd of students gathered at Taylor Field, regardless of rain and cold weather. The band also added much to the spirit of the games on several occasions.

The Campbell College Varsity basketball team led by seniors Bobby Etheridge, Dave Bult, and Marvin Moss, along with high-scoring Pete Wish, for the most part played tremendous basketball, but they just didn't seem to get the breaks.

The highest scoring total that the Camels compiled in one game came against St. Andrews when the Campbell Camels defeated the Knights by a score of 108 to 72. Transfer student Benny Dean had the high individual game total for the year, and it came against Atlantic Christian when he pumped in 39 points.

Coach Fred McCall often called on Bob Yencho, Jimmy Jordan, and Gary Davis, who always gave outstanding performances.

The Camels, losing by narrow margins very often, wound up the season with a record of 12 wins and 15 losses.

The J. V. Basketball team's high point was its trip to Oak Ridge for the last game of the season. Knowing that they needed a victory to assure them of a winning season, the boys played with great determination and confidence; the result was that Campbell's Camels beat Oak Ridge by three points and finished up with a 7-6 record.

Sam Garrigues was the team's high scorer, but all of the boys deserve credit for a fine season.

CAPTAIN LARRY KIRKMAN and COACH CLAY COSTNER

Campbell's tennis squad faced a challenge this year in trying to better last year's record of 8-6. The squad was coached this year by Clay Costner, who replaced Alton Buzbee. Buzbee was associated with the VISTA program this year and was required to be away from the campus during part of the season.

Returning from last year's squad were Joe Bailey, Larry Kirkman, Bill Young, and C. C. Pharr. Selby Daniels and Bill Simonson were the starters this spring. The Campbell team played Randolph-Macon, Pembroke, Belmont-Abbey, and St. Andrews, among others.

Baseball

The baseball team provided good representation of Campbell again this year. The Camels' greatest headache this season was in their lack of experienced hitting, but the team was aided by the return of Calvin Shaw, Sonny Miller, Larry Rizer, and Larry Richardson from last year's squad.

This year's schedule included one newcomer—East Carolina, as well as 1964 Carolinas Conference Champ, Pfeiffer and Elon, Pembroke, Wesleyan, Wilmington, St. Andrews, and others.

Campbell's new volleyball team is an outgrowth of the Intramural Program. The team defeated such teams as Appalachian State Teachers College and the Sanford Optimist Club.

In February Campbell was invited to participate in an invitational tournament at Knoxville, Tennessee. Campbell's team won the six-tournament championship and finished up its season with a record of eight wins and one loss.

Rifle Club

The Rifle Club is a self-supporting group of sportsmen engaged in a broad shooting program, the real aim of which is to serve all shooters and to teach Americans to shoot safely and well. The Campbell College Rifle Club hopes to set up a broad-range shooting program for this community and surrounding communities.

The sole purpose of the Intramural Program is to give each boy and girl an opportunity to participate in various organized activities. The program offers individual as well as team sports, which gives the participant an opportunity to perform individually as well as with a team.

All of the dorms participate enthusiastically in an attempt to win the over-all trophy given at the end of each year. The students, through their participation and enthusiasm, help make the program successful.

Aspects of Campus Life...

Smile!

You're on Campbell's Camera!

"At least it's one way to get off the campus; it beats walking!"

"You won't believe it, but I was best-all-around in my senior class."

Leap, frog, leap!

"Really, Smitty! Where are your manners? Is this what you've learned in College?"

"You might know—it's for my roommate."

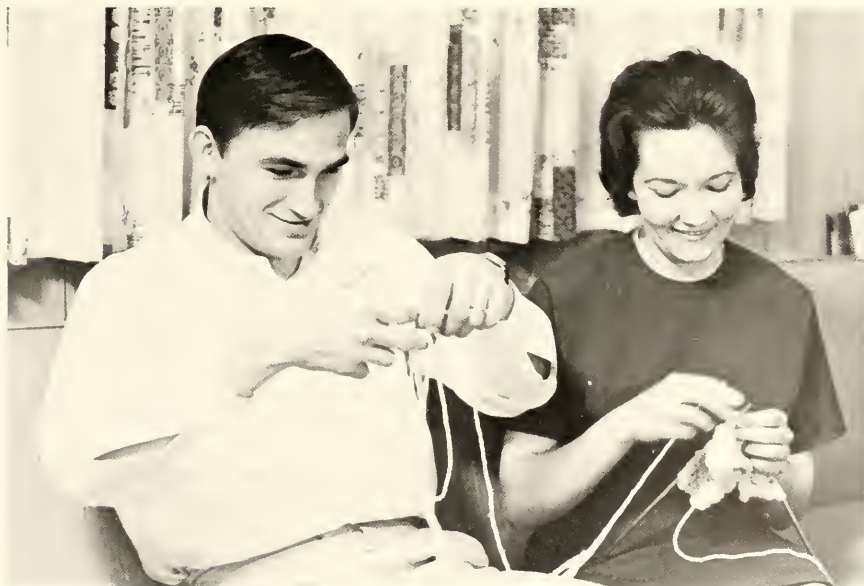

"The very idea! Hanging up after I walked all the way down here!"

"I borrowed your car, 'cause I knew you wouldn't want me to take your girl out walking."

"Gene, what's happened to us? You don't talk to me during the commercials anymore."

Married Students Idyll: "This sort of thing never crossed my mind!"

"All boys love it. It smells like a new car."

"Where's the talking room?"

"Is this the thing you've been yelling at?"

"Did you know that ninety-nine percent of all people who have false teeth prefer cavities?"

"I'll never understand boys. I told him I had a date already—and he said 'Okay' and hung up!"

"No, honey, you say, 'Just a moment, please'—not, 'Hang onto your pants, mister'."

"You know, of course, that this means tonight we have to take cold showers?!!"

"... and twelve hamburgers, six orders of french fries, six cokes, four tossed salads, four pizzas, and ..."

"How can you have three aces when I have two?!!"

"Yes, I'll loan you a buck, but only because you can't find the secret compartment in your wallet."

"What do you say we take the money we've saved for the wedding and blow it on a movie?"

"Since the girls can't come out, I'll have to be content to throw at you."

"What do you mean, 'It sounds better on tape'?"

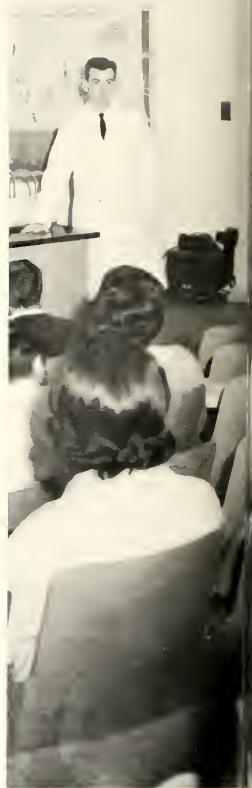

School is out, so we can all go home.

BOBBY BALLANCE
Assistant Editor

We, your annual staff, hope you will treasure this yearbook as much as we value the honor of being chosen to summarize and present to you this souvenir of our school year 1964-1965.

Without the cooperation of many individuals and organizations, our production would never have been possible. Our special thanks go out to Mr. Robert L. King, our sponsor, and to Mr. J. Delmer Ashworth, our advisor. The assistance of both has been invaluable to us. We would also like to thank Mr. Phillip E. Kennedy and Mrs. Edna Stephens of the Public Relations Office and the entire Creek Pebbles staff for devoting so much of their time to helping us produce this annual. Last, but not least, we would like to extend our thanks to the student body and to the faculty and administration for the interest and cooperation they have shown to us.

As editor, I also wish to take this opportunity to thank our advertisers, Waller Studio, our class photographers, Edwards and Broughton, our publishers, and especially the members of the yearbook staff for their continuous work and "devotion to duty."

This has been a challenging and rewarding experience for me, and I will never forget it or the wonderful friends I have found at Campbell through my work on the yearbook.

Sincerely,

ANNE WEBSTER
Editor

And now it's vacation time.
